

Tennis Without Limits
Code of Conduct Policy and Form

Tennis Without Limits exists to offer underrepresented youth exposure to the game of tennis through sports and personal development training. Our organization is committed to conducting all affairs with integrity and care. Program participants have a responsibility to hold themselves to the highest degree of sportsmanship, integrity, and honesty—even if it means the loss of a point, game, and—yes—even a match. Additionally, program participants are to be timely, fully present, and respectful of others at all times. Failure to participate in a proper manner may result in expulsion from the program. By signing this agreement, the program participant and parents agree to the following:

- Attend every session offered.
- Be on time.
- Follow the schedule.
- Comply with all directions and requests of instructors.
- Be attentive.
- Participate in all activities.
- Help other participants if you can.
- Practice correct tennis form.
- Do not talk back or argue with the coaches.
- Nor horse playing.
- No bullying allowed.
- Keep your hands to yourself.
- Have your equipment ready.
- Do not post any pictures of participants or staff on social media without the consent of the individual.
- No drugs, weapons, tobacco products, or alcoholic beverages are allowed.
- No fights, arguments, gossip, or other verbal or physical expression that is offensive, demeaning, or of any sexual nature.
- Wear clothing in a neat and clean appearance.
